Center for Evidence-Based Crime Policy at George Mason University Crime and Place Working Group (CPWG) <http://gemini.gmu.edu/cebcp/Place-BasedBibliography.pdf>

The Crime and Place Working Group (CPWG) is a research program within the Center that focuses solely on the understanding and development of the criminology of micro-places. Under the co-directorship of Drs. David Weisburd (GMU), Elizabeth Groff (Temple University), and Brian Lawton (GMU) this working group and its members seek to advance the study of place in criminology.
